

Wisr launches employee financial wellness solutions: Wisr @ Work Your Wealth Hub announces pilot program with Wisr

Sydney, 7 June 2018 - Neo lender Wisr has launched a financial wellness program aimed at helping businesses combat one of the biggest causes of workplace stress, personal financial difficulties.

Called Wisr @ Work, this program allows businesses to provide staff with online tools, education materials and debt reduction applications to help employees take control of their money and improve financial wellness.

According to a Wisr survey of 250 Australians, it was found 48% of employees had experienced stress in the workplace because of their personal financial situation. Almost 65% said they had experienced feelings of anxiety or panic at work because of monetary issues, whilst 43% said it impacted their productivity and 35% had been unable to work because of personal financial stress.

Karen Taylor, Head of Partnerships, Wisr said “many employees are unable to properly perform at work because of financial stress. Monetary issues such as mounting credit card debt, inability to meet savings goals or failing to pay bills on time can all contribute to workplace strain.”

The Wisr @ Work program includes online tools that allow employees to better understand their financial position and creditworthiness, customisable debt reduction smartphone apps that automatically pay-down credit card and loan debt and financial education programs.

Wisr also announced a Wisr @ Work pilot program with fast-growing Australian company Your Wealth Hub.

Your Wealth Hub has partnered with Wisr to provide debt consolidation services for its customers. Your Wealth Hub is an online portal that provides solid and easily accessible financial education and advice to individual employees.

Gavin Glozier, Co-Founder and Director, Your Wealth Hub, said “the partnership with Wisr helps to expand our products/service offerings for our members. Wisr has helped us to ensure every member gains as much understanding and advice options to make the best financial decisions. Our initial launch focused on debt consolidation and we will continue to introduce Wisr products to our members.”
